

Liz V. Franco

Illustrator/2D Storyboard Artist

illiztrations4@gmail.com

(661) 878-2366

Profile

An Illustrator and 2D Storyboard Artist who has a great interest in animals, nature, and all things spiritual. I have a great passion for storytelling and creating fantasy characters that inspire many of the natural world.

Experience

General Officer-California State University Northridge (Aug 2019-Dec 2021)

- Participate in weekly meetings to establish programs and opportunities for aspired animator students
- Provide information regarding possible animation internships and careers for students.
- Provide workshops, and essential tools needed for student animators

Storyboard Artist-Pixar Animation Workshop (Dec 2020)

- Participated in a 2-Day workshop with PAS
- Created 25 storyboard panels
- Collaborated with 20 other students and Pixar Staff

Key Skills

Programs: Adobe Animate, Procreate, Photoshop, ClipStudio Paint, Medibang

Materials: Acrylic, oil, watercolor paints, graphite/colored pencils, pastels, needlework

Illustrator-Freelance

- Providing illustrative work for books of young readers
- Creator of Daizu: The Shiba Warrior, Moon, The Red Wolf Rider, and more to come.

Education

Antelope Valley College: Associates of Studio Arts

California State University Northridge: Bachelors of Arts